2 §

CALLING THE MEETING TO ORDER

Antti Ihamuotila, Attorney-at-Law, was elected as the Chair of the Annual General Meeting and he called Maiju Airisniemi, LL.M., to act as secretary.

The Chair explained the procedures for considering the items on the agenda of the Annual General Meeting.

It was noted that the Annual General Meeting was conducted in Finnish.

It was noted that the Financial Statements, the notice to the Annual General Meeting which includes the proposals of the Board of Directors and the Shareholders' Nomination Board to the Annual General Meeting in full, the Company's Remuneration Report for governing bodies as well as other documents and information required by the Finnish Companies Act and the Securities Markets Act had been available to shareholders on the Company's website for the period required by the Finnish Companies Act prior to the Annual General Meeting. These documents were also available for review at the Annual General Meeting.

It was noted that it had been possible to vote in advance on certain items on the agenda of the Annual General Meeting. Also, custodian banks representing nominee-registered shareholders had been able to participate in the advance voting on behalf of the shareholders they represented. Each proposal subject to advance voting was considered to have been presented without amendments at the Annual General Meeting.

A summary list by Innovatics Oy of the votes cast in the advance voting were appended to the minutes (Appendix 2).

It was noted that approximately 99.9 per cent of the shares registered for the Annual General Meeting had voted in advance and that a majority of the votes cast in advance were in favor of the proposals considered at the Annual General Meeting. For individual items on the agenda, the opposing votes cast in advance represented up to a maximum of approximately 9 per cent of the total number of votes exercisable at the Annual General Meeting based on registrations for the Annual General Meeting. It was further noted that in the agenda items concerning the election of the members of the Board of Directors and the auditor, more opposing votes had been cast. However, since it was not possible to oppose the proposal in these agenda items without making a counterproposal, such votes were not formally taken into account as opposing votes.

The Chair noted based on the votes cast in advance that if an agenda item is not subject to a full counting of votes, the number of opposing or abstaining votes would be recorded in the minutes in the agenda item in question. The Chair further noted that to the extent that opposing votes have been presented without a counterproposal in agenda items where it is not possible to oppose the proposal without a counterproposal, such votes would not be recorded in the minutes.
